Responsible Travel Design for the Culturally Curious

HI! I'M ALEXANDRA

I'm a 30-something vagabond, dog mom, witchy woman, and ocean-obsessed, yoga teacher, living in this world, searching for magic all over this beautiful globe. I create epic, meaningful, travel experiences for those whom I love (that's you!), to help them connect their roots.

Keeping earth at the center of mind when I design these trips, I source eco-friendly, local, sustainable options whenever possible. Creating connection for the culturally curious.

With over 12 years of travel industry experience, and 6 years as a yoga teacher dutifully stocked on my apothecary shelves, I'm sure we can brew up something magical together, that's just perfect for you!

Together we are able to make a direct impact on the communities we visit, by supporting local vendors, we support the communities we visit; ensuring there are jobs, and by prioritizing locally sourced goods & services, we ensure that the local economy is supported- from farmers to craftsman, to folks in the hospitality industry.

I make it a priority on every itinerary that I craft, to add in at least one element of lagniappe (as my sorority would call it)! My favorite ways to gift our host communities are to donate to, or volunteer (this works best as a group) at a local shelter, school, orphanage, or nature preserve; and I ALWAYS source and incorporate locally owned businesses and restaurants to ensure that we put our tourist dollars directly into the communities that we visit when we travel.

'Shop local' & 'shop small', are at the heart of what I look for when designing travel experiences for all of my clients. So, what are you waiting for? Let's craft your trip today!

Cheers!
Alexandra

PERKS OF WORKING WITH ME

Personal Touch

Every itinerary I design contains at least one personal element specific to each client, whether it's a welcome note at each hotel during your stay, or a whole anniversary cake surprise! It's a little touch of magic, from me to you!

Green Travel Options

Front of mind when I design travel is how to make it as eco-friendly & sustainable as possible. I use non-stop flights, guided tours with trusted local suppliers, I source B Corporations & eco-friendly resorts, when possible, & my personal favorite way to support the local economy is with a farm-to-table meal or ten (lol).

Immersive Experiences

For the Culturally Curious! Let the locals reveal their destination's true charm - whether it's in the form of a Scotch tasting and tour in Glasgow, or an authentic pasta making class in Italy, learn from locals and become enriched!

Giving Back

Donate with your dollar (1% of all ABA profit is donated to global causes monthly), shop local and shop small at home & abroad, or donate your time through local volunteer opportunities.

MY PROCESS

Inquire & Connect 01.

Once you've submitted an inquiry form and scheduled your complimentary call, we'll connect. During your call, we'll deep dive into your travel wish list, my process, and what you can expect. If we connect and you feel that I'm a good fit for your travel needs, we'll move on to the proposal step.

Proposal Curation 02.

After our call, I'll follow up with a recap email and my invoice for your planning fee. Once the fee has been paid in full, I'll proceed with curating the first draft of your proposal based on our call and your inquiry form.

Itinerary Confirmation & Countdown 03.

Once you've decided on the perfect proposal details, we'll confirm it with a deposit. While you count down to departure day, you can count on hearing me through various touch points, preparing you for takeoff and checking in. Your final travel documents will be delivered prior to departure, and I'll be sure to check in with you on arrival day to make sure all went well.

HAPPY CLIENTS

“Alexandra planned the most incredible night.”

We had the winery all to ourselves. We had a small ceremony with a photographer and minister. After the ceremony we took the most gorgeous photos then got to enjoy a private meal. We sat outside overlooking the vineyard, listened to music, drank amazing wine, and ate some of the best food I've ever had. The ladies who owned the winery made us feel like family. They gave us a tour and talked about their story. They filled our glasses every time we asked and even put on our wedding song from our first dance.
